Reflection on Today's Gospel by Father Stephen

Today's gospel presents one of the most dramatic scenes in the New Testament, in which the arrogant Roman governor, Pontius Pilate, learns ironically that Jesus is a king, but not of the kind with which he can deal. When asked if he is a king, Jesus does not at first claim the title "king" but replies, "Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews." This does not mean that Jesus kingdom is purely spiritual or other worldly, but that his present and future reign does not depend on power or dominance. When Jesus in reply to Pilate's next question, "So you are a king then?" does state that he is a king and adds that he came into the world to bear witness to the truth. Jesus speaks the truth about God and humanity as the "way, the truth and the life." People can reject this, but accepting this truth brings true freedom. Pilate decides to sit on the fence and says: "Truth? What is that?" He is imprisoned by his own cynicism and worldly ambition.

Pilate is called on to make a choice and so are we!

Mary Holgate and Margaret Stanley from Our Lady and St. John invite you to come and join them every Saturday morning at 9:30am at Our Lady and St John, to say the Rosary and pray for parishioner, Mary Brownrigg who is very poorly at the moment.

Christmas Cards to Palestine

Message of Hope

The Justice and Peace Group invite you to join them again in sending Christmas Cards with our messages of support to the beleaguered Christians in the Holy Family parishes of Gaza and Ramallah. Last year some of our children sent their own cards to the children in the two parish schools which helped to brighten their lives and it would be lovely if they did so again this year.

So, if you could bring one or two cards to church - signed and with a short greeting - we will post the cards for you. Just write either Gaza or Ramallah on the envelope. Stamps are not needed. There will be a collection box for them at the back of both our churches. The last collection will be on Sunday 9th December.

Your response last year was magnificent, and we thank you again in anticipation.

Fr Mario da Silva, the parish priest of Holy Family Gaza, writes - "Thank you for your concern about the situation here. Believe me it is a really difficult situation. About the Christmas Cards I must confess to you that it is a personal joy for me and my parish to receive every year your cards. It is a joy to know that many people are concerning about our situation. So, I advise, if it is possible, to continue to send cards"

News from Assam: Fr Andreas has sent us a copy of the Holy Family English Essay winning entry. Zacharias Lakra writes about the lack of electricity and his village being in darkness due to a lack of electricity. He finds it difficult to study in these conditions. A copy of his Essay, together with his photo and two other students, is on the Noticeboard.

REMINDER! Holy Family Assam Collection will take place after all Masses next Sunday, 2nd December.

The Cenacolo Community invites you to an Open Day and Cenacolo Living Nativity on Saturday 1st December in Kendal, Cumbria.
